CLIFF RUSSELL (1939-2007)

Cliff Russell, loving husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, of Sedro-Woolley, WA, passed away on Monday, April 16, 2007. He was born in Everson, WA, on December 12, 1939, to Mr. and Mrs. Orville Russell.

Cliff graduated from Nooksack Valley High School. He married Diane Hamilton, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Don Hamilton, on April 20, 1959, in Coeur D'Alene, ID.

Over the years, Cliff drove trucks for Consolidated Freight Ways, Washington Logger, Swede Larsen, Alpine, LTI, Jim Coons, and Hamilton Brothers. His hobbies included fishing, garage-saleing, scale models, woodworking, and collections of numerous things. He was the president of the Performance Model Club. He also worked the Deming Log Show BBQ for 20 plus years.

Cliff leaves behind his wife Diane, of 48 years; children: Debbie and Jasper deHoog of Umatilla, OR; Shelly and Dave DeBruin of Bellingham; David and Susie Russell of Sedro-Woolley; and Kenny Russell of Sedro-Woolley; 12 grandchildren; 4 great-grandchildren; and numerous other family and friends.

Cliff was preceded in death by his father Orville Russell and great-grandson Corbin.

A Graveside Service will be held at 1:00 PM on Thursday, April 19th, at Kendall Cemetery, with a Memorial Service following at 2:00 PM at the Deming Log Show Museum, with Pastor Ron Deegan officiating.

You may share your thoughts and memories of Cliff in the on-line memorial guest book at www.molesfuneralhomes.com.

Moles Family Funeral Homes & Crematory
Bayview Chapel - Bellingham
Published in Skagit Valley Herald Publishing Company on April 18, 2007